Upon Appeal from the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Washington,
Southern Division

WINTHROP L. BROWN,

A witness on behalf of the plaintiff, after being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Hile:

I am a banker by occupation employed by the Bank of America, National Trust & Savings Association, Los Angeles, California main office. I formerly worked for the Seaboard National Bank, that was taken over by the Bank of America. The A. B. A. Number is 16—128. That is the number that appears on the checks to identify the bank.

I recognized government's Exhibits 182, 183 and 184. They are in my custody and control. That is true of the first exhibits and the other two. They are permanent records of the bank. The three exhibits admitted without objection subject to substitution of copies.

CHAPTER I

The first part of the history
 is the history of the world from the beginning
 of time to the present time. It is divided into three parts: the history
 of the world from the beginning of time to the present time, the
 history of the world
 from the present time
 to the future, and the
 history of the world
 from the future to the end of time.

CHAPTER I

The first part of the history of the world is the history of the creation of the world. It is the history of the first man, Adam, and his fall from grace. It is the history of the first sin, and the first punishment. It is the history of the first redemption, and the first promise of a better world to come.

CHAPTER I

The first part of the history
 is the history of the
 world from the beginning
 of time to the present
 time. It is divided into three parts: the history
 of the world from the
 beginning of time to
 the present time, the
 history of the world
 from the present time
 to the future, and the
 history of the world
 from the future to the end of time.

CHAPTER I

The first part of the book is devoted to a general survey of the history of the United States from the discovery of the continent to the present time. It is divided into three parts: the first part deals with the discovery and early settlement of the continent; the second part deals with the growth of the colonies and the struggle for independence; the third part deals with the formation of the United States and the development of the federal government.

The second part of the book is devoted to a detailed account of the American Revolution. It begins with the outbreak of the war in 1775 and ends with the signing of the peace treaty in 1783. It covers the military and political events of the war, as well as the social and economic changes that took place during this period.

The third part of the book is devoted to a study of the American Constitution and the development of the federal government. It discusses the principles of the Constitution and the role of the different branches of government. It also examines the growth of the federal government and the relationship between the states and the federal government.

[Endorsed]: Filed Oct. 26, 1942.

The Court: What are they?

Mr. Hile: I might state to the jury that 182 is the signature card of the Atkins Corporation, authorizing the signature of either W. Markowitz or J. F. Simons.

(Testimony of Winthrop L. Brown.)

Exhibits 183 and 184 are deposit slips of the Atkins Corporation and the other an abstract of the Atkins Corporation account. The amount of the deposit ticket is reflected in the account of the Atkins Corporation. The amount of the deposit is $20,000 under date of March 26, 1934.

Q. Handing you what has been admitted,—It is a check of Lewis Roth, $10,000.00, cashiers check, Lewis Roth, payable to the Atkins Corporation, payable to the order of the Seaboard National Bank, charged to the Atkins Corporation, I will ask you if 181, Mr. Brown, appears on the ledger sheet which is exhibit 183? [381]

A. Yes, it does.

Q. And does it bear relation to the deposit ticket 182?

A. The deposit ticket is 184.

Q. I beg your pardon, 184?

A. Yes it does. And there is an item on the deposit ticket "C" C. Ross, 16-1, $10,000" which is the cashiers check.

Q. Can you tell us whether or not that is the same check as is reflected on the deposit ticket?

A. I would say that it is, sir.

Mr. Hile: I offer 185 and 186.

Mr. Simon: No objection.

The Court: They will be admitted in evidence, exhibits 185 and 186.

Exhibits 185 and 186 have a relationship to the deposit ticket handed me. The items are listed as Meyers 16291, $5,000 each on the deposit slip.

Q. Can you tell us whether or not these are the same checks or photostats of the original checks?

A. I would say they are the photostats of the checks that were deposited.

(Testimony of Winthrop L. Brown.)

Q. And do those items appear in the ledger account of the Atkins Corporation?

A. They would.

Q. They would?

A. They would, yes, under the total of the $20,000.00 deposit on March 26th.

Q. And does that total of $20,000.00 tie in with both checks on the deposit ticket?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you make some mention of 1941? [382]

A. No. I said 16291.

Q. That is the number of the bank?

A. That is correct. That is the number of the bank.

Mr. Hile: I would like to call the jury's attention to Government's 183, part of the Atkins Corporation $20,000.00, March 26, 1934; and the opposite column, check withdrawal $20,000.00, withdrawal March 29, 1934.

You may examine.

Mr. Simon: No questions. [383]

Q. (By Mr. Hile): Mr. Grensted, handing you what is marked Government's 184 and 188, both of which have been admitted, and with reference to the two items on the deposit tickets, for $5,000 each, Meyers, I will ask you to state whether or not they are reflected in the account of H. Harry Meyers which is represented by the ledger card that I have handed you?

A. Yes, those items were deposited to the account of the Atkins Corporation and checks drawn against the Meyers account.

Q. Those are shown as withdrawals from Meyers' account? A. Yes.

Q. 188 which has been admitted—Maybe I better go to this first, if I may. 187 which has been admitted is the signature card of H. H. Meyers on the Bank of America, signed here "H. H. Meyers, address Hotel Gaylord, telephone Drexel 4000, occupation Engineer," and referring back again to the deposit tickets—referring now to the account of [384] H. H. Meyers, two withdrawal items, March 27, 1934, $5,000.00, and $5,000.00, and 185 and 186, the two checks to which I have before referred, and the deposit tickets showing the deposit of two $5,000.00 items in the Atkins Company account, and handing you what is marked Government's 189 for identification, I will ask you whether or not that document is a permanent record of your bank, Mr. Grinsted?

A. Yes, it is.

That document is called a loan liability ledger.

(Testimony of C. K. Grensted.)

Same admitted in evidence as exhibit 189 without objection.

Mr. Hile: It is the loan liability ledger, H. H. Meyers, "Business or occupation, Financier, Address, Gaylord Apartments, Date May 6, 1935, loan No. 738, Maturity, August 2, 1935, 6% Class, S. T.

Q. That means what, did you say?

A. Secured time.

Q. Secured time, and what does that mean?

A. It means that the loan is secured by collateral and it is for a certain length of time.

Q. A little louder. I didn't hear you.

A. The loan is secured by collateral and it is for a certain length of time.

Q. St. T. $25,000.00, and date—I mean May,—it says twenty-five thousand and then date 5-8-'35, two days later, paid $25,000.00.

Now then, the other item is Date, October 5, 1935, demand, 5%. What does "demand" mean?

A. It means it is payable upon call by the bank.

Q. That is the bank can call in the loan at any time? A. Yes.

Q. "Made $13,500.00" and showing payment $13,500.00 on March 16, 1936. [385]

Government's 190 and the liability ledger card 189 are related one to the other. No. 190 shows where the loan of $25,000 was paid. The loan was made on May 6, 1935. No. 191 is related to 189. That shows the collateral that was paid up for the loan of $13,500.00.

(Testimony of C. K. Grensted.)

Mr. Simon: We have no objection to 189, 190 and 191.

The Court: They will be admitted in evidence.

Government's No. 192 is a permanent record of my bank. Said exhibit admitted.

Mr. Hile: Now, I would like to refer to these briefly, if I may, your Honor.

The Court: Yes.

Mr. Hile: 191, which is the record of collateral ledger copy—That is the one that shows, the collateral put up for the loan?

A. That is right.

Mr. Hile: Par value of bonds, $10,000.00 and $5,000.00 in other words, $15,000 total; U. S. Treasury 2 3/4 bonds, certificate numbers of which are given, with coupons attached, and acknowledging the return of the securities to H. H. Meyers, whose signature appears—That is what it is?

A. That is correct.

Q. When the loan was paid the securities were returned to H. H. Meyers?

A. That is what it is, yes.

Q. And 190, with regard to the $25,000.00 loan appearing on the loan liability ledger, checks 1910, $28,000.00, [386] less credit of $2,975.00, making a total of $25,025.00, which is shown as applied on the loan. That is what that is? A. Yes.

Q. Shows that that was in payment of the loan of $25,000.00? A. That is correct.

Exhibit 192 read to the jury.

Q. Handing you what has been marked 193 for identification, I will ask you what, if any, relation it bears to 190 which has been admitted?

A. $28,000.00 cashier's check of the Peoples Bank & Trust Company, Seattle, was part payment of the $25,000.00 note, plus the $25.00 interest.

(Testimony of C. K. Grensted.)

Q. Part payment? Or was it payment in full?

A. It was payment in full, but it was—part of the $28,000.00 was used to pay the note in full.

Q. I see. And the balance went where?

A. Was credited to his account.

Q. To the account of Mr. Meyers?

A. H. H. Meyers.

Mr. Hile: I offer 193.

Mr. Simon: No objection.

The Court: It will be admitted in evidence.

Government's 194 through 217 inclusive are records of my bank, aside from the photostats attached. They are deposit slips of H. H. Meyers. Said exhibits admitted.

Mr. Hile: I would like to read some of these. There is not much to read on them; your Honor.

[Endorsed]: Filed Jun 28 1943.

The Court: Very well.

Mr. Hile: 194, deposit to the account of H. Harry Meyers—That is the case in each one of these and I [387] won't read that again. May 2, 1935, telegraphic transfer $15,000.00; May 6, 1935; note $25,000.00.

Q. Does that have any relation to that loan liability, Mr. Grensted?

A. I would have to check the loan liability ledger sheet to compare the dates.

(Testimony of C. K. Grensted.)

Q. Will you check, then, 195 against 189?

A. Yes, that is it.

Mr. Simon: It is admitted that they are records of the bank and that those sums were deposited to Dr. Meyers' account.

Q. (By Mr. Hile): I have forgotten what your answer was with regard to this $25,000.00 note, with reference to the loan liability?

A. That indicates the proceeds of the loan.

Q. In other words, Mr. Meyers obtained this loan and then deposited it in the bank?

A. To the credit of H. H. Meyers.

Mr. Hile: 196, checks, 19-10, $28,000.00, less note and interest, $25,000.25 ($25,025.00) leaving a credit of $2,975.00. Does that bear any relationship to the loan liability ledger card?

A. Yes, that is the $2,975.00, the balance that went to the credit of H. H. Meyers from the $28,000.00 check, which went to pay the $25,000.00 note, plus interest.

Mr. Hile continued reading from exhibits 197 to 217.

The deposit of October 5, 1935 of $13,500.00 shown on Exhibits 205 is a deposit of the proceeds of the $13,500 loan to Meyers of the same date shown on loan liability ledger card, exhibit 189. [388]

Exhibit 218 is a recordex of the check drawn on Union Bank and Trust Company. At that time we took recordex pictures of checks that went out of town. It is related to Exhibit 204 and 182. It is a check that was deposited and appears on the ledger sheet as of September 24, 1935.

Exhibit 218 admitted over objection only as to its materiality not the identification.

Cross Examination

By Mr. Simon:

Mr. Meyers did business with our bank from October 4, 1931. The account was quite active. It was the type of account which was used for the transaction of business and not for accumulation. On a couple of occasions he borrowed money and repaid it. It did not know him personally. In opening a new account where there is no application for a loan, the occupation is requested merely for identification. The customer makes his own notation and if a man like Meyers [389] notes himself as an engineer we would probably know that he was not a railroad engineer. It was merely to identify him generally in the business he was interested in. I do not know whether Meyers had any other bank accounts.

Dr. Meyers had purchased certificates of deposit from our bank previously. Exhibit 192 indicates that he also held $25,000 certificate of deposit in the Farmers & Merchants Bank. There was nothing irregular or improper in connection with his account.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Hile:

The fact that one opening an account in the bank did not show his occupation correctly would have no effect on lending him money because the bank requires security.

(Testimony of C. K. Grensted.)

Re-cross Examination

Mr. Simon:

I do not know whether Dr. Meyers ever asked for an unsecured loan. [390]

The first part of the work is devoted to a general history of the world, from the beginning of time to the present day. The author discusses the various ages of the world, the rise and fall of empires, and the progress of civilization. He also touches upon the different religions and philosophies that have shaped human thought.

The second part of the work is a detailed account of the history of the British Empire. It covers the reigns of the Stuart, Hanoverian, and Georgian dynasties, highlighting the expansion of the empire and the role of the British in the world. The author also discusses the internal politics and social changes that took place in Britain during this period.

The third part of the work is a history of the American colonies and the United States. It describes the struggle for independence, the formation of the new nation, and the early years of the republic. The author also discusses the westward expansion and the role of the United States in the world.

The fourth part of the work is a history of the French Revolution and the Napoleonic Wars. It details the rise of Napoleon Bonaparte, the fall of the French monarchy, and the impact of the wars on Europe. The author also discusses the political and social changes that resulted from the revolution.

The fifth part of the work is a history of the Restoration and the reign of George III. It covers the return of the monarchy to Britain, the reign of George III, and the events leading up to the American Revolution. The author also discusses the political and social changes that took place during this period.

The sixth part of the work is a history of the reign of George IV and the early years of the reign of William IV. It discusses the political and social changes that took place during this period, as well as the role of the monarchy in the government.

The seventh part of the work is a history of the reign of William IV and the early years of the reign of Victoria. It covers the reign of William IV, the death of Queen Anne, and the beginning of the reign of Victoria. The author also discusses the political and social changes that took place during this period.

The first part of the report is devoted to a general description of the country and its resources. It is followed by a detailed account of the various industries and occupations of the people. The report concludes with a summary of the principal facts and a list of the principal places in the country.
